

*Luxury Countryside
Villa in Tuscany*

Radicondoli, located in the heart of Tuscany, is a peaceful medieval village surrounded by natural farmland, poetic cypress trees on hilly tops, friendly wildlife, true Tuscan colors and yet unspoiled by foreign visitors. This is the elite scenario where Casale Santa Croce is located. Carefully restored in 2007 with local expertise and labor, Casale Santa Croce represents the essence of Tuscany.

The spirit of Santa Croce

The owner has devoted a great deal of passion to make this home his own home, a unique place where family & friends can experience an enjoyable and unforgettable stay.

The surrounding land of mixed woodlands and natural meadows is rich in wildflowers, animals and ancient ruins including the castle of Falsini.

Santa Croce is an ideal place to unwind from the stress of the city and to treat yourself to some of the gastronomic pleasures of the region: pecorino sheep cheese with a glass of wine, delicious tagliatelle with ragu or a juicy Fiorentina steak.

Information

The main villa and its separate annex can accommodate up to 10 people within 5 suite bedrooms with their private bathrooms. In front of the villa, there is a big barbecue area and a breathtaking view of the typical Tuscan hills. You'll also admire the medieval village of Belforte while swimming in the pool or relaxing in the Jacuzzi.

A few minutes away by car, you can easily reach local traditional gastronomic shops such as the perocino cheese producer or the bio honey apiculture, as well as the medieval village of Radicondoli. And if you are looking to discover the art of wine tasting or the excitement of the big cities, their fine art or the shopping outlets, you can easily reach the Chianti vineyards, Florence and Siena within an 1 hour by a car.

And for those who are in love with Italian cuisine, why not organize an authentic Tuscan cooking lesson directly at the Casale with Luana?
